

*During the month of November,
all Masses are for the faithful deceased.
On the altar, there is a wooden box from Jerusalem with the red candle,
it contains the names of deceased family and friends listed on the All Soul envelopes.
When the priest offers any Masses during the month of November, these intentions will be remembered as the List of the Deceased.*

Saturday, Nov. 29 from 9am until 1pm. Our keynote speaker this year is Fr. Bryan Duggan, actual Associate Director of the Vocations Office at the Archdiocese of Vancouver. TUESDAY IS REMEMBRANCE DAY

Every Remembrance Day, Knights of Columbus all over Canada lay wreaths in remembrance of the Fallen Soldier. Your parish council 9846 has been doing this every year and participating with an Honour Guard at the Cenotaph in Port Moody. It is our duty as Knights and Catholic gentlemen, to pray for, and honour those who laid their lives down, that we may live in peace and security. We would like to invite every parishioner to attend the ceremony at Port Moody. Be with your Knights as we lay down the wreath. And remember...

God Bless, Mark Pan Grand Knight, Council 9846 St. Josephs.
10:30am - Form up and Parade down Clarke Street to Cenotaph
11am - 2-Minute Silence, Laying of Wreaths at Cenotaph with 21-Gun Cannon Salute - Seymour Artillery Swiftbird Ex-RAF Team Cenotaph Flyover
For more info go to www.portmoody.ca

ON REMEMBRANCE DAY

All are invited to Gardens of Gethsemani, Surrey, for a Mass at 10 am followed by a wreath-laying at 11. During this season of remembrance and in light of the recent tragic events at the National War Memorial near Parliament Hill and in St-Jean-sur-Richelieu, Quebec, it is fitting and appropriate for Catholic communities all across Canada to formally acknowledge each soldier's sacrifice on this Remembrance Day. rccav.org/event/remembrance-day-mass

November - The Month of Holy Souls in Purgatory

Catholic piety has assigned entire months of the year to various devotions. As a reminder of our duty to pray for the suffering faithful in Purgatory, the Church has dedicated the month of November to the Holy Souls. The Holy Souls are those who have died in the state of grace but who are not yet free from all punishment due to their unforgiven venial sins and all other sins already forgiven for which satisfaction is still to be made. They are certain of entering Heaven, but first they must be purified in Purgatory. The Holy Souls cannot help themselves because for them the night has come, when no man can work (John 9:4). It is our great privilege of brotherhood that we can shorten their time of separation from God by our prayers, good works, and, especially, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. During the month of November, all Masses are for the intentions of all the faithful deceased, especially for those requested on the All Souls envelopes.

Clearly print your prayer request names on the All Souls envelope and drop it in the collection basket or through the mail slot of the rectory's front door.

- Please note the November 10th, 9am Morning Mass time change: Monday, November 10th a Thanksgiving Mass will be celebrated at 5:00 pm. (no morning Mass)

Revisiting RCIA –

Spiritual and Moral Formation of a Catholic Soul

On Wednesday evenings Fr. Au will share with the faithful a series of Catholic topics, e.g., God's Identity, true liturgical worship, spiritual perfection, moral dilemma, bioethics, virtues and vices, Marian devotions, etc. The range of topics are modelled after the RCIA. Therefore, it is especially ideal for those who had already gone through RCIA and had been baptized, or those who are knowledgeable about the faith and want to explore deeper elements of the Catholic faith. Seats have become available for the trip to the HOLY LAND

Every Sunday Mass, we hear the Word of God from the Bible. It seems like something that happened in distance land. But, the Bible is not a museum piece.

You can make it real. Want to experience the Bible by walking? Here is the chance. Fr. Richard Au is taking a group to the Holy Land from April 26 for 2 weeks. He began his theological studies in the Holy Land between 1991 and 1992. Since 1995 he had led many groups of pilgrims to experience the Land of our Saviour. Fr. Au is familiar with the history, geography, theology and archaeology of the Holy Land. If you want to share this experience, please contact the parish office. Travel arrangement is under the care of Confidence Travel Ltd/Thomas Cook Travel Services.
