EPIPHANY BLESSINGS

Fr. Au will continue to have the traditional blessings of the Holy Water, salt and chalk on the Vigil of the Epiphany. Please take home the Holy Water and a small piece of chalk along with a prayer booklet for the annual renewal of blessings as according to your culture. If you like Fr. Au to come to your home for the blessings, please call the office to arrange a time to visit, especially, during these 40 days of Christmas, ending on Feb. 2. This is a wonderful custom and a teaching moment for your family members by connecting Christ's birth and his manifestation in your own home.

The chalk is to mark your homes with the following symbol: 20 + C + M + B + 15 which signifies "Christ Bless this Home"

HAVE ALB WILL TRAVEL:

For the last year and a half or so, I, Fr. John Tritschler, have been replacing in various parishes within the Archdiocese of Vancouver. Indeed I also served for 5 weeks in the western arctic during this past Christmas Season. Fr. Richard Au asked me to replace him here at St. Joseph's for this last week, and until this Tuesday. So my priestly Alb (white robe worn by the priest at Mass under the colorful outer robe) and I have been doing a fair amount of travelling together. If you wish to reach me you can do so by phoning my cell: 604-803-1629. St. Patrick's Parish, 12th Ave., and Main St., Vancouver, is where I hang my hat and my Alb when not replacing in other parishes. I turn 75 this April 3rd and will be ordained a priest for 49 years this May 28. I have served in many parishes within the Archdiocese of Vancouver and also as a volunteer priest from 1993-96 in the Sahtu, Great Bear Lake, area of the western arctic and in Fort Nelson, B.C. (Yukon Diocese) in 2008. Thank you for your friendliness and welcome!

Prayer for Christian Unity

God, spring of living water, make of us witnesses of unity through our attitudes more than through our words. Help us to understand that we are not the owners of the spring, and that the gushing living water cannot be contained in our jars alone.

Teach us that our mission is to share your grace with those to whom we proclaim you.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
